

Position Description

High School Maths Science Teacher

Scope

Development and implementation of the Maths / Science programme, Years 9 – 12, with possible extension into Classes 7 and 8. Someone who is looking to make a longer term commitment to our school and Steiner education, building and advancing the programme over a period of time.

Accountabilities

- To develop greater strength and richness in our Maths programme in our High School
- That the programme fits in with the aims of our Steiner based curriculum and its attendant requirements around the particular impulses of each year level and the appropriate methodology in the classroom
- To support the objectives of Steiner Education inherent in the curriculum across all levels
- To maximize limited resources
- The ability to engender in students a love for the subject, excellence and the sense that they are being rigorously assessed
- To undertake to gain the necessary professional development

Objectives

- To relate the programme to our projected new site as part of the wonderful Abbotsford Convent Precinct and its natural aspect
- To open out the area to extra curricular Maths / Science are as such as Sustainability
- To take leadership in implementing the process of consolidation and renewal of our Maths / Science programme

Required Skills

- A passion for the subject and a capacity to engender the enthusiasm in students
- Qualified, VIT registered Ms t with experience, and strong levels energy and of enthusiasm
- Good planning skills
- Strong sense of collegiality and capacity to work with teachers and management
- Good communication skills
- Professionalism in meeting timelines, assessment, reporting, preparedness for class, attendance at meetings
- Knowledge of Steiner education preferable but not essential
- Willingness to work within the Ethos of Sophia Mundi Steiner School