

SOPHIA
MUNDI

Steiner Education and IB World School

IBDP History Teacher

Commencing Term 1, 2024

Position Vacant:

Senior Teacher - IB History and Secondary Humanities

Sophia Mundi Steiner School is seeking to appoint a professional, motivated and engaging person as a key member of our senior school faculty. This position is to teach the International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme History Course to Years 11 and 12. This position carries an allocation of between 0.60 – 0.80 FTE; with potential to increase to full-time depending on other teaching methods and experience.

The school is looking for a teacher, passionate about History with knowledge of the IB Diploma Programme. Appropriate academic qualifications as well as a sound understanding of current educational trends and learning styles are required.

This position offers a unique opportunity for someone who may also have an interest in Steiner education, although this is not a requirement for the position.

Required Skills

- Excellence in teaching
- Experience teaching IBDP History
- VIT Registration
- A passion for the subject and a capacity to engender interest.

To be successful in securing this position you will have demonstrated ability and passion for teaching History, strong ICT skills and an ability to differentiate in the delivery of curriculum, as well as a flexible, collegial approach.

Sophia Mundi is a progressive, co-educational inner-city, Steiner school located in the Abbotsford Convent, Melbourne. In P-10 we offer the ACARA approved Steiner National curriculum and in Years 11-12 the IBDP. We are committed to the care, safety and protection of all children attending the school.
